

WorkOhio:

Reach Your Full Potential

WorkOhio connects Ohioans to personalized support and trusted job resources, no matter where they live in Ohio. WorkOhio.gov is an easy-to-use starting point for anyone looking for new job opportunities, training programs, or other resources aligned with your background, experience, and goals.

 WorkOhio.gov

Why WorkOhio?

Under the leadership of Governor Mike DeWine and Lt. Governor Tressel, and with the support of the Ohio General Assembly, a wide variety of resources have been created to help Ohioans get great jobs, especially in high demand fields. We know that the job search process can sometimes be hard to navigate and you may be overwhelmed. WorkOhio serves as a “front door” to all the job-help resources Ohio offers, allowing you to navigate the job tools that fit you best, all in one convenient online location.

Personalized Support

1. Choose where you live or want to work
2. Request one-on-one support
3. A local partner connects with you within 2 business days

Explore Resources For You

Explore the website on your own with resources and guidance tailored to different stages of life or career paths—helping you quickly find the job tools most relevant to you.

Regional Job Hubs

When an Ohioan requests personalized assistance through WorkOhio, the request goes to one of seven WorkOhio Regional Job Hubs. These Job Hubs are trusted local organizations who understand their region’s top industries, employers, and unique workforce needs.

- Northeast Ohio: MAGNET
- Eastern Ohio: Mahoning Valley Manufacturers Coalition
- Southeast Ohio: Ohio Valley Employment Resource – Workforce Development Area 15
- Central Ohio: Central Ohio Workforce Development Network, powered by Aspyr, Greater Ohio Workforce Board Inc., and South Central Ohio Workforce Partnership
- Northwest Ohio: Toledo Regional Chamber of Commerce
- Western Ohio: Strategic Ohio Council for Higher Education
- Southwest Ohio: Cincinnati Regional Chamber of Commerce’s Workforce Innovation Center